Summary

Graduated in Film Production (BA Hons) from Edinburgh Napier University, Hugely creative, practical, and energetic, with an unstoppable passion for visual production. With commercial and corporate experience, I have a profound knowledge of the production processes and exemplary organisational and planning skills. With a background in assistant producing and assistant directing, I have gained strong strategic planning and client relationship skillsets, with quality communication skills to liaise with high profile clients, as well as foresee production setbacks before they occur. An excellent communicator and team player, I am looking for the opportunity to join a professional and dynamic workplace where I can further my skills and abilities.
