

Olly Alder

Southampton, Hampshire, UK

ollyalderfilm@gmail.com

ollyalderfilms.wordpress.com

<https://uk.linkedin.com/in/ollyalder>

Summary

Hardworking aspiring director, director of photography, camera operator and screenwriter with plenty of hands on experience with short filmmaking, as well as an invested interest in making and writing feature films. Eager to participate and gain experience in any paid or unpaid work within the industry in any capacity.

Skills

- Directing.
- Cinematography.
- Competent Editor.
- Confident writer.
- Confident with Final Cut Pro X.
- Trained on industry standard equipment.
- Competent Colour grade artist.

Personal Traits

- Creative, passionate and driven.
- Confident in my abilities.
- Organised and efficient.
- Team player.
- Leadership and communication skills.
- Work well under the pressure of a challenge.
- Problem solver.

Accomplishments

I have written several short films and am currently writing several feature length films. I have been the Director of Photography, or the Director on several short-films of varying genre. I participated in the making of a music video for rapper Mic Righteous, starring fashion designer Vivienne Westwood. In August 2016, a film I was credited as Director of Photography for was shown in London as part of the Rooftop Film Club. In early September 2016 I was part of the camera crew on a feature length film.

Education

September 2014 - Present.

Bachelor of Arts (Hons) Film: Southampton Solent University.

My degree at Southampton Solent University has given me valuable experience in working as a team to produce short films, and has given me experience using professional standard equipment. I have also gained experience in speaking publicly from giving presentations and pitching film concepts and scripts.

Other Notable Experience

April 2012 - August 2014.

Sales Associate at Skechers USA in Ashford, Kent.

This role required a lot of team work, as well as excellent communication between team members. While I was working at Skechers I learnt the value of playing as a team, as well as learning that hard work pays off. While this role is not related to the creative industry I feel it has helped me develop as a person in time management, team work and communication, which I believe to be important traits