I am a motivated, adaptable and responsible graduate seeking a runner/researcher role in the television industry. Strong organisational and communication skills, a keen interest in media production and a reliable and friendly nature are all assets I would bring to the workplace.

Bloomberg Course February 2017- Undertook a Bloomberg Intensive Broadcasting Programme at the Camden Roundhouse which enhanced my digital media skills. The course allowed me to get to grips with using broadcast worthy camera equipment (Canon C300/ Sony EX3), directing and vision mixing live streams that were broadcast on YouTube and independently editing promotional videos on Adobe Premiere Pro.

Industry Work Experience

FleishmannHillard Fishburn - Contributed to research for upcoming agency events, maintained and updated a key client's social media pages and created content for the weekly newsletter.

BBC Voices - BBC Radio Norfolk 'BBC Introducing' show volunteer- Tasks include looking after guests and updating social media, as well as assisting interview shoots and editing videos for Facebook.

Mustard TV: Norfolk's regional TV channel- Main tasks included researching and contacting potential guests for the topical magazine show and editing YouTube content to ensure continuity with branding was present. Also ensured presenters and guests were well looked after and controlled the autocue for the live shows.

ITV- Gained insight into the fast-paced world of daytime television when on work experience at ITV. I was assigned tasks from being a runner on an outside shoot with Levi Roots in Camden to creating call sheets for a Downtown Abbey Press Release. My time here proved my adaptability when given new tasks, as well as an eagerness to learn.

Other Work Experience

Au-Pair- Hired by a Spanish family in Madrid to provide childcare and English language teaching to three girls under the age of ten.

'Field to Fork' - Sainsbury's Headquarters - Shadowed food development for one of the leading food retailers in Britain. Met with a number of suppliers, in order to understand the process of getting food from field to fork in the most efficient way possible and contributed to marketing campaigns for Easter 2015.

Royal Norfolk and Suffolk Yacht Club / Quayside Bar and Restaurant- Waitress and barmaid during my school and university holidays. This role entailed providing good customer service and maintaining a level of diligence in an often fast paced environment.
