EDITOR/TEAM LEADER-SILK TV

July 2013 – Jan 2016

During my time at Silk TV, I ran the social media accounts, filmed and edited videos, organised team meetings, delegated tasks, tutored staff and produced new ideas.

EDUCATION

MEDIA PRODUCTION 2.2 2012

University of derby.

my independent studies dissertation explored the representation of gender within the music industry. During my time on the course we learned how to produce programmes for radio and TV. We also acquired the skills to run social media accounts, edit videos and work effectively on projects.

HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

I spend my free time writing and making video projects with friends such as films and interviews. I also enjoy walking my dog, reading books, socialising with friends and trying new recipes. I have a passion for football and obtained an FA coaching badge, as I knew it would provide me with transferable skills within any business environment.
