Personal Skills

- I have very good communication skills which have been improved and tested through my work experience, jobs and projects. Working with the public and clients allowed me to gain confidence and the ability to speak to new people clearly, efficiently and professionally.
- Using my own initiative, I can overcome problems easily, But I can also follow instructions well which has been proved by the type of occupations and projects that I have worked on.
- I work well within a team environment; this is represented through the various productions that I have been involved in. However, I can also work well and efficiently individually when needed.
- Administration is one of my strongest skills, I have gained a lot of experience with previous employment in this particular area.
- I have very good communication skills which have been improved and tested through my work experience, jobs and projects. Working with the public and clients allowed me to gain confidence and the ability to speak to new people clearly, efficiently and professionally.
- Organisation is my strongest skill – I feel that I am very organised and can adapt to different ways of scheduling/ being organised depending on the project and company preferences, which I feel is an important skill to have for production.
- Experience using Microsoft Office such as Excel, Word etc.
