Personal Summary

Skilled researcher and production assistant with extensive location and office experience. Recently graduated with first class honours from the University of Bristol. Aspiring to a career in film and television and looking for work to gain further understanding about the industry and build relationships with industry professionals. Passionate about filmmaking, History, travel and combining them in exploration of the stories that emerge from human interaction and the natural world. I enjoy making GoPro travel films and DSLR wedding videos in my spare time.
