Personal Summary

Since working on a variety of documentaries, music videos, short and feature films, I feel confident in the skills and knowledge I have acquired to call myself a successful First Assistant Director and Producer. I have a keen eye for detail and enjoy working as part of a team. In both of these roles, I am able to let my organised manner shine through and I find working to a tight schedule only makes me work harder to make sure a job is never left unfinished. As a First Assistant Director and Producer, I enjoy being a part of the backbone of a shoot, watching the preparations made beforehand guide the creativity on set.
