

SOPHIE GRAY

8 Trevanion Road, Trewoon, Cornwall, PL25 5SY

bigplacesmallspaces@gmail.com

07467435620

Profile:

BA (Hons) Television student studying at Falmouth University who is pursuing a career in Television Production or industry related profession. My skills and attributes include: excellent teamworking, effective communication and creative problem-solving. I am a keen learner and looking to make a valuable contribution to an organisation.

Education/Qualifications:

Falmouth University (2018-2021)

– BA (Hons) Television

Includes: Knowledge of editing software such as PREMIERE and PROTOOLS, documentary making, scriptwriting and multi-camera productions.

Cornwall College (2016-2018)

–BTEC Level 3 Extended Diploma in Media Production Passed with Distinction/Distinction *

Truro High School For Girls (2011-2016)

– 5 GCSES A-C

Skills:

Teamwork

- Former staff member at White River Cinema in St Austell, helping to restock shelves and to help staff when the summer periods got busier.
- Production roles on 3rd year student projects such as 1st AD, Script Supervisor and Production Assistant, making sure all departments are ready to shoot and any extra help can be assisted with.
-

Organisation

- Successful at being a full-time student and volunteering as a Cub Scout Leader, running various activities and trips away to inspire young children.
- On time for lectures and seminars and having a very high attendance.

Creative Problem Solving

- Worked for Western Morning News covering Boardmasters Festival with page spread of photographs and article in 2018.
- Worked for my local pantomime group to produce the marketing and programme posters for their show “Little Red Riding Hood” in 2019.

Experience:

Active engagement on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Linked In, Snapchat.

Previous online host and broadcaster on You Now streaming platform.

Produced/Directed documentary for the Green Lane Association 'Highway or Byway?' as part of BTEC final major project module.

Camera Operator/Assistant for a 1st Year Students extracts from films 'Four Weddings and a Funeral' and 'The Shining'. Directed by Emily Newbury

Currently assisting with a 3rd Year University production 'My Bag and I' Directed by Michael Durban

Planned work for 2019: Script supervisor for a 2nd Year University production 'Distant Relatives'

References available on request.