Josiah Ward loves comedy, people and is looking for Runner work. He's a proactive graduate from Bournemouth University who, while working with AFC Bournemouth to pay the bills, has created the following portfolio. Josiah is a problem solver who eases stress on employers and doesn't always refer to himself in the third person as much as this.

Work History

Assistant Runner – The Personal History of David Copperfield (Dir. Armando Iannucci, 2019)
Involved on cast-heavy days, I assisted the runners by blocking off, and providing coffee etc. for cast and crew. Reported to the Key Floor Runner and the 3rd Assistant Director and assisted in arranging scenes.

Runner – Prime Cut; Series 1 Episode 6 (Dir. Peter Fellows & George Riley, 2017)
Duties involved assisting the producer, making food and drinks and blocking paths while filming commenced. Helped ensure that cast and crew were happy while shoot days went by smoothly and finished on time.

Theatre Practitioner – Doppelganger Productions Sept 2017-Mar 2018
Wrote, Directed and Produced plays with a small team and hosted performance nights for the general public. Working here was balanced with my final year at university which required a demanding responsibility.

Researcher – LoveLove Films July-August 2017
A mixture of office and on-set work included working with a cast of over 100 for an advertisement shoot.

Office Runner – Raw TV July 2017
Read scripts and wrote script reports to assist the Writing Department in choosing new writers.

Floor Runner – London Screenwriters' Festival Aug-Sept 2016
As Speaker Support, I worked long and fast-paced days to make sure Speakers attended talks on time.

Education

Bournemouth University Sept 2015-June 2018
Graduate of BA (Hons) Scriptwriting for Film and Television, a Creative Skillset accredited media school. While studying I wrote and produced my own short films. One of which caught the attention of a lecturer who offered me work with his company, Doppelganger Productions.

Things I like to do that you may see as a link to this job

Sports

I attend clubs and play in Badminton, Tennis and Football teams; 'I even love saying the word 'team'!

Always watching, always writing

Film, TV, poetry. Usually comedy. Always is hyperbole but you get the point.

Podcasting

I host the aptly named 'Alternative Football Commentary Podcast' where I welcome a new guest each episode.
