PERSONAL SUMMARY

I'm an award winning film maker, winning awards from both The Royal Television Society and Best Shorts Competition. I have completed a Creative Film & Media course at Carlisle College and a Filmmaking course at Manchester Metropolitan University; creating many short films, both fictional and non-fictional, through and outside these courses. In the past I have also worked freelance in my home-town filming weddings, commissions and various events for local clients. I have also previously completed work experience for Toasted Productions at Media City.
