Profile:

Reliable, determined aspiring media professional, with experience in producing, presenting and scheduling live and pre-recorded radio and television. I'm a creative individual, with interest in radio presenting and Television production. An active student at the University of Salford's MediaCity campus, I'm familiar with industry standard audio editing software, and able to solve problems efficiently and effectively both technical, and practical. I am also familiar with industry standard camera's and shooting equipment. I want to obtain more experience with a view to improving my skills and learning from professionals within the industry.
