HAIR AND MAKEUP
TRAINEE

ABOUT ME

I consider myself outgoing and a hardworking individual, passionate about makeup and the creative opportunities it offers. I trained at the industry leading Delamar Academy in London, earning a Certificate in Higher Education for Hair and Makeup Design, before refreshing my hair skills under the guidance of Peter Swords King and his team at the Bath Academy of Media Makeup, a world renowned facility. I have extensive fashion industry experience, working at MAC Cosmetics for a year, polishing my makeup skills, on a diverse range of customers. I have worked in retail, developing clear and confident communication skills and teamwork, as well as working as a private nanny in NYC, thriving with the higher responsibility of the role and revelling in living abroad. Switching my previous focus from fashion and editorial makeup, my career goal is to work in the Film & TV industry, combining my love for detailed makeup with working within a team and a more elaborate end product.
