MA Filmmaking: London Film School 2008

GBCT Steadicam Training - with Peter Robertson (Atonement, Anna Karenina, Hot Fuzz)

BIOGRAPHY:

Following a twenty year career as an Award Winning Professional Photographer, working in Fashion & Advertising, Paul enrolled on the prestigious, London Film School, on their MA Film Making program. Graduating in 2008, on Miri Shapiro's "4 Kilometres", a 35mm short film, shot on location in the Southern Israeli desert close to Gaza.

The following year Paul shot "Fanatic", another 35mm short film shot in Barcelona and the UK. "Fanatic" went on to screen at various International Film Festivals including Warsaw, Austin, Nashville, Leeds, Oldenburg and Bogota - winning 'Best Short Film' at Milano International Film Festival Awards 2009 and 'Best Cinematography' at Bornshorts 2010.

In 2012 Paul returned to Israel to shoot Khen Shalem's short film "The Other Side", following the successful award of UK Jewish Film's 'Pears Short Film Fund Bursary'. "The Other Side" screened at Florida, Nashville, Short Shorts Tokyo, Athens, Rhode Island & Santa Barbara International Film Festivals. Winning 'Best Short Film' at 'Academy Qualifying' Chicago International Children's Film Festival and was also 'Long Listed' for BAFTA's Short Film Award 2013. "The Other Side" also screened as part of 'Best of the Fest' at Palm Springs International Short Fest in 2012.

Over the past two years Paul has shot various Feature Teasers, Short Films, Commercials and TV Pilots, as well as working as 2nd Unit DoP & Operator on a number of Features and TV Dramas based in the Yorkshire regions.

Later this year, Paul is due to shoot his first main unit feature on Ben Jagger's supernatural thriller, "Dark Peak" (budget £1.4m) and next year (2015) attached to shoot Startree Production's "Corbin Nash".
