Anika carries dual citizenship (South Africa | Hungary EU) and has international experience as a unit still photographer having recently returned from shooting in Berlin and New York City on two highly acclaimed series titled 'Unorthodox' & 'Deutschland 89'.

She possesses a remarkable style of her own, which she has crafted from working as a fashion photographer during her earlier years.

Her strength certainly lies in her meticulous planning and conceptualising episodic shoots as well as also being an excellent colourist and photo retoucher making her a valuable asset to the team.
