Nicola is an award-winning, midlands-based photographer with a background in theatre. She studied photography at Dundee Contemporary Arts and City College Coventry and trained in Unit Stills with the Film Stills Academy in 2022 when she moved into her full-time role as a stills and theatre photographer. Since leaving her role as Marketing Director at The Belgrade Theatre, Coventry in 2022 she has worked on numerous TV and film productions including a couple of BBC TV series, a UKTV drama and a couple of feature films, capturing stills and BTS photographs. She is passionate about storytelling and with a unique female eye she blends in well with any crew.
