

Rhiannon Edgell – Locations Trainee

Rhiannonedgell@outlook.com | 07813720104 | based West Yorkshire/Manchester

---

I am a resilient, hardworking history and law graduate, passionate about using the medium of TV to convey history to a wider audience, as well as engage future generations. I am keen to work in the locations department, making sure sites are safe, clean and that all departments can work efficiently. I wish to continue building my industry knowledge, collaborating with people from all walks of life.

Skills

- In depth knowledge of 18th and 19th British history and heritage
- Ability to multitask and work to tight century deadlines
- Confident working in difficult conditions
- Archive experience
- Willing to muck in
- Great communication skills
- Confident working with children
- Able to work independently as well as in a team
- Psychiatric First Aid Training
- Screen Skills Covid Training

Media Experience

Runner, 'Moment of Grace', Old Hall Films, May 2021 (1x week)

- Responsible for assisting the locations team - clearing sets, packing up, cleaning, general runner duties
- Ensuring crew were happy over comms, promptly responding to their needs, collecting batteries and equipment, following Covid protocols, taking temperatures, filling in paperwork

Runner, 'Sowerby Bridge - Why? Why Not?', Calderdale Council, December 2020 (1x week)

- Responsible for scheduling, researching local stories, gathering release forms, helping to set up the camera kit, ensuring Covid safety measures were followed on location
- Responsible for logging footage, reviewing rushes, picking out key themes and quotes for the edit, managing databases

Shadowing, 'Gentleman Jack', Lookout Point, September – October 2018 (2x weeks)

- Shadowing film crew, gaining insight into various roles, researching for dissertation

Additional Experience

Visitor Assistant, Calderdale Museums, July 2021 – Present

- Responsible for offering strong customer service, adapting to different situations, being conscientious of hazards, cleaning

Farm Assistant – Olde House Farm, March 2020 – August 2021

- Assisting with the daily running of the farm including managing the farm in the absence of the owner, ensuring the safety of tradesman working on-site and enforcing Covid restrictions

Volunteer, Greater Manchester Police Museum, January 2018 – Present

- Researching for exhibitions aimed at a wide audience, also researching family history at the request of a production company
- Responsible for looking after visitors and conducting informative and imaginative tours

Work Experience, Fairfax House, January – May 2019

- Responsible for researching for events and exhibitions (Silver Screen Event and Gillray Exhibition), sourcing archive footage of historic cinema trailers, working to fast turnaround

Education

2018-2020 University of York: MA (with Merit) - Public History

2015-2018 University of Salford: First (LLB) - Law

References

References available on request

This CV may be kept on file and distributed for employment purposes.