About Me:

I am enthusiastic and excited to learn new skills in production environment. I am very sociable and have fulfilling engagement with clients. I can also work in fast paced environment. Prime example was helping warehouse to operate smoothly and safely as possible. I have great attention to details and time keeping skills by attending my current work on time and completing work in tight schedule. I also go above and beyond by helping colleagues and managers to complete their work in high standards and working extra hours to complete work when needed.
