PROFILE

Relatively new to the art department and the industry as a whole, looking to establish myself and gain more experience wherever possible. I am a reliable and hardworking with experience in cabinet making, prop making and set dressing for television. Keen sense of detail, punctual and can work well independently or as part of a team. Passionate about the TV and film industry, I aim to build a career in the art department and eventually run my own business creating bespoke props for film, TV, and private commissions.
