A highly motivated and skilled radio production student with aspirations of becoming a broadcaster on live radio and podcast producer. I am a proficient audio editor who has recorded and edited several podcasts as well as broadcasted own live radio show on CSR FM.

INDUSTRY RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

22/05/2019

STARRED IN AND SHADOWED THE BARSHENS PODCAST

I was invited to the YouTube studios in London to participate in a day's recording of popular online podcast Barshens starring youtubers Stuart Ashen and Barry Lewis. I shadowed the whole production and helped set up the equipment such as the cameras and microphones as well as being recorded for an episode of the podcast.

SEPTEMBER 2018 – SEPTEMBER 2019

BROADCASTER, CSR FM

I broadcast my own live radio show that aired on a weekly basis from 7pm - 8pm Saturday evenings. The show was a 60s music show where I would pick a playlist of music from the 1960's and research, prepare and voice live links between them, introducing the music, discussing the songs as well as facts about the time they were released.

EDUCATION

PRESENT

FILM TELEVISION AND RADIO STUDIES, CANTERBURY CHRIST CHURCH UNIVERSITY

I am currently a student where I am learning valuable technical skills in sound recording, broadcasting and editing. For my course I have written, recorded and edited a podcast for which the grade I received was a First. I have also produced a live TV show as part of a group for which I was also awarded a First. My role in this project was to manage the lights, manage the VT, the recording and the racking, coordinating with the other members of the group and the studio manager.
