Currently working part time in retail, I am determined to pursue a career in the motion picture industry. I admire advanced storytelling and creative filmmaking to articulate innovative ideas and purposeful products, whilst striving for faithful representation. For me, a rising professional who is developing in the industry world with a non-traditional background, the way this industry has the potential to communicate artistic expression, to articulate an inclusive and diverse product is especially purposeful and rewarding to me. Self-motivated; always excited to work with new people to learn and listen
