DIRECTING EXPERIENCE

A sci-fi short film shot at Kola Superdeep borehole site. While ransacking an abandoned science lab, two brothers find a device that could make them rich, but there is a price to pay...

A corporate documentary about three female business leaders and the struggles they face trying to balance their work and family lives.

Russia's biggest restaurant award celebrates its 10th anniversary as its creator reminisces on how it all started and the adversity she faced early on.

English subtitles are available in the player menu.

A person wearing a wide-brimmed hat and a long dress is walking along the shoreline of a beach at sunset. The waves are gently washing onto the sand, and the person's reflection is visible in the wet sand. In the background, a long pier extends into the ocean, and some buildings are visible on the horizon under a warm, golden sky.
