I would like to get more experience in the creative entertainment industry however I am also open to opportunities in other sectors to expand my overall skillset. As a people person, I have great communication skills and work well in a team though I also thrive independently. ## Experience and Employment

Rehearsal Stage Manager, January – March 2024 for 'Hamlet' at the Andrew Lloyd Webber Foundation Theatre, Chiswick - ArtsEd
During a production of 'Hamlet' which I performed in, I also acted as the Stage Manager for the rehearsal process, running fight calls, noting down blocking and managing props. My role was essential in ensuring a smooth rehearsal process, ensuring discipline, organisation and drive amongst the cast.

Assistant Stage Manager, December 2023 for 'Dick Whittington' at the Compass Theatre, Ickenham – DK Productions
I aided the Stage Manager with moving sets, quick costume changes, changing microphone packs and ensuring clear communication between the cast and crew. My organisation, patience, and energy ensured my presence had a positive impact on the production, felt by both the cast and crew.

Production Assistant, August 2023 for 'The Stage Is Yours 2023' at the Compass Theatre, Ickenham – DK Productions
This was a work experience opportunity as a Production Assistant on a Kids workshop week, organising schedules, managing admin tasks and supervising children. I also attended a pre-production meeting for an upcoming project with its leading creative directors. This enabled me to become more aware of how the business aspect of a production company operates.
