

Profile

Highly-motivated filmmaker, keen to learn and grow with every opportunity. I am always eager to make an impression and connections through my hard work and productivity.

I learnt the necessary skills of leadership, communication and organisation through producing, writing and directing my own short films, which received praise and selections at various film festivals like the Cornwall film Festival.

Whilst studying at the University of Plymouth, I landed several paid roles as a Freelance Editor, making edits for clients & filmmakers tailored to their specific requirements. Where I learnt of the benefits of hard work and exceeding the client's expectations in order to land more opportunities, whilst as well learning the ins and outs of the Adobe Creative Suite.

Education

Plymouth University, Filmmaking

09-2019 – 05-2022 | United Kingdom

During my degree, I wrote a dissertation about the contrasting opinions on how to write a film, for which I received a 1st.

Analogue Camera Workshop

01-2022 | United Kingdom

This four-day workshop was led by the production company Mayes Creative, where we learned how to produce a film using Standard 8, Super 8 and 16mm film cameras.

Felpham Community College, A-Levels

2018

In sixth form, I studied and received A-Levels in Media Studies, English Language and Geography.
