Personal Summary

I have a BA (Hons) in Filmmaking with a specific interest in and passion for Directing and Cinematography. I am a quick learner and work efficiently in a team and individually. As someone who has a dream to work in film, I am looking to further my experience and education with roles that allow me to contribute creatively and practically to a project.

Selected Filmography

Bury the Eagle | Short | Director | May 2022

Working in multiple locations under strict timeframes, under pressure. Finding and working with professionally trained actors and portraying my vision to them. Maintaining good working relationships with a big crew. Attention to detail with motifs, performance, lighting, and sound choices. Booking and using a large amount of kit to gain experience and knowledge in.

Life of a New Age Worker | Music Video | Self Shot | May 2022

Engaging with music and a unique idea to construct an energetic and outgoing production. Experimenting with slow motion, location, and props to create professional content whilst conveying my artistic vision.

Max | Short | Self Shot | January 2022

Working with non-actors and using my creative initiative on set with minimal equipment. I effectively did a great amount of organisational work, creating schedules and monitoring locations and how shooting days would be impactful to the final piece. Gained improvements in framing and compositional attributes to the filmmaking craft.

Unfamiliar Yogurt | Short | Self Shot | October 2021

Experimenting with different lighting and visual techniques. Attempting to construct a meaningful story within compelling imagery. Using large and tight spaces to create cinematic portraits.

Soup De Poisson | Short | Self Shot | June 2021

Working with a large monologue and a non-actor. Being prepared to innovate and experiment with ideas due to the chronological filming and working with masses of food. To add on, working quickly and efficiently in tight time frame

BRICK | Short | Self Shot | June 2021

I used a screenplay I had written and attempted to highlight the visual style of the short through montage editing and colour grading. Communicating with a rented location which I had to organise and schedule.

Address Unknown | Short | Self Shot | June 2021

Experimental visual storytelling through a variety of camera techniques and using sound, props, and narration creatively. Furthermore, working in peak lockdown restrictions meant limited filmmaking opportunities which I overcame with an innovative and surreal idea.

Daydream of Mine | Short | 1st AD | June 2021

Collaborating with a large crew and working with shot lists, creating multiple schedules for a long shoot. Good awareness of health and safety issues. I gained knowledge into the importance of organisational skills when working on a film and the importance to making each working day seem smooth and satisfying.

In the Dead of Night | Short | Gaffer | May 2021

Creating innovative solutions with minimal kit. Multi-tasking and taking direction from others, thinking creatively through lighting decisions and clapper boarding.

Dear, Wingman | Short | Director | January 2021

Communication skills throughout all the production phases. Motivational and leadership skills working in a large crew on set in different locations. Scriptwriting, cinematography control and foley experience, whilst guiding a team to create a big project.

Like A Brother | Short | Cinematographer | January 2021

Creative thinking and being adaptable on set to unfamiliar locations and camera. Using my initiative and following a script and orders from a director and working with his vision.
