Summary

Hardworking and creative, looking for a new opportunity within the media industry. Prior experience building a freelance filmmaking and creative producer portfolio, taking concepts from pitch to post-production. Confident in collaborative and fast-paced environments, valuing skills of innovation and creativity. Committed to continuous learning and developing agility in the industry to achieve my life long ambition of being a cinematic director.

Experience

Freelance Filmmaker & Creative Producer Jun 2023 to Current

Various Film Companies and Creative Projects

- As a Creative Producer at the Edinburgh Fringe, successfully partnered with external businesses and freelancers as part of an effective media strategy. This resulted in a campaign that generated consecutive two-week sell-out runs (2022, 2023) at the world's largest arts festival.
- Led teams of 60+ cast and crew as Director and Senior Creative at venues such as Exeter's Northcott Theatre, the city's flagship professional venue. Later transferring skills of leadership, communication, and problem-solving to film sets as a reliable and proactive 1st Assistant Director.
- Streamlined communication and creative planning in pre-production and on set, as Director of various short films. This entails creating safe and dedicated spaces for collaboration, with a focus on communication, and inspiring passion and creativity. Thus, increasing and promoting motivation for the project and content creation.
- Managed cross-departmental coordination (Camera, Talent, Sound, etc.). For simultaneous film and theatre productions as Creative Producer, Production Assistant. Ensured these projects operated on time and below budget, whilst making financial and environmentally sustainable choices, which were essential for brand ethics goals.
- Organised a social media campaign strategy for a start-up company that quickly led to 900+ ticket sales for a three-day theatre event.

Performance Arts Teacher Dec 2020 to Aug 2024

Action Theatre Club

- Fostered a creative and positive learning environment for children aged 3 to 17. Teaching performance skills and etiquette, while demonstrating the fun side of theatrical exploration.
- Utilised knowledge of music and digital editing software to create sound design for seven simultaneous children's theatre productions, assuming the role of sound technician for the company's spring and summer performances (2024).

Learning Support Assistant Sep 2019 to Jun 2024

Downsend School

- Facilitated administrative tasks and communication between parents and school management to achieve mutually set development goals, to promote a normal and beneficial school day for children with disability needs.
- Provided 1-1 care to multiple children with severe disabilities and medical needs which required a high level of empathy whilst responding to difficult emergencies and emotional circumstances.
- Assisted in events and activations for enhancing educational experience, often using proactive problem solving skills to resolve potential arising obstacles to success.
