ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

As an artist I have worked with many performers on the cabaret and burlesque scene to produce artwork for their websites and promotional materials as well as carrying out logo and flyer design for shows.

I have also worked with small independent businesses and created logo and business card designs.

I have also had features (either art based or photography) in numerous publications such as The Lancashire Evening Post, the Liverpool Echo, Burlesque Bible, Vintage Life, and Wireless Student Magazine..

I have also worked with vintage repro clothing brand Collectif Clothing (based in London) in designing embroidery and print illustrations for their clothing items.

I took part in my first gallery exhibition in May 2012 as part of a group show in London entitled 'A Brush With Burlesque'.

As a photographer I have worked internationally and with performers in television and film.
