Personal Statement

Dyslexic visual storyteller with BAFTA/Albert sustainability and Mark Milsome safety certifications, passionate about high-end scripted television and film. A First-Class Film Production graduate and 2025 RTS Midlands Student Awards nominee, I thrive in fast-paced environments, bringing a desire to learn and a keen creative eye. With hands-on experience across 20+ student productions, I have built strong foundations in various department knowledge and on-set workflows. My adaptability and leadership skills have developed through co-owning and managing DUB skate shop and leading a retail team at Morrisons, reinforcing my ability to work under pressure and support dynamic teams.

Key Skills & Competencies

- Health & Safety Awareness: Knowledge of on-set safety protocols and the ability to ensure a safe working environment.
- Problem-Solving: Quick thinker with the ability to handle last-minute changes.
- Attention to Detail: Ensure all tasks are carried out with precision.
- Multitasking: Capable of managing several responsibilities at once.
- Customer Service: Friendly and professional when interacting with cast and crew.
- Communication: Strong verbal and written communication to liaise between departments and crew.
- Teamwork: Collaborative and adaptable, able to assist multiple departments and take direction from senior crew.
- Time Management: Able to prioritise tasks and work under tight deadlines while maintaining efficiency.
