

PIP RUSTAGE
Photographer

Pip Rustage is an accomplished photographer with over 20 years of experience, creating powerful campaign imagery for top global brands like New Balance, Pepsi Max, RSA, and Team Sky.

Clients trust Pip to bring complex creative briefs to life, producing high-impact visuals that perform across advertising, social media, and digital platforms.

Pip thrives in collaborative environments, seamlessly integrating with creative teams to deliver powerful imagery that helps brands authentically connect with their audience.

Known for tackling technical challenges head-on, Pip excels at capturing high-speed motion, fire, liquid, powder, and other dynamic elements, pushing the boundaries of what's possible in photography.

Her meticulous attention to detail – whether it's in lighting, lens selection, or post-production – ensures every image is not only visually striking but also technically flawless.

For agencies looking to set new standards for visual storytelling, Pip is the photographer who can take their campaign to the next level.
