Personal Info

I am a friendly helpful person with a willingness to learn and use new skills. I have a good sense of humour and fun which is balanced by reliability and trustworthiness. I am a creative, hard working, conscientious person who produces work to the best of my ability. I can work well within a group and equally alone.

Work Experience

Visitor Experience Assistant, Natural History Museum - December 2024 - to present
Operations duty - Patrolling the galleries, customer assistance, enforcing safety regulations, and evacuation training.
Sales duty - Till operations, customer information, stock management, upselling.

Studio Assistant, Solent University March 2023 - March 2024

As a SFX studio assistant for the university my role was to supervise the students during the evening session. I ensured students were familiar and aware of the predetermined health and safety guidelines.

Scream Aloud scream park, Lyminster October 2022

During this event I was makeup artist for the actors performing in the maze, creating seven different horror character looks spread across multiple actors per night, also following requests from the team leader.

SFX Makeup Artist for Maria Soprano, Derby August 2022

Whilst working on this short film I was the lead MUA of a small team. After following the brief from the Director I applied special effects makeup, light touch ups and some prosthetics.

Dr Martens, London/Southampton October 2018- December 2023

As a part time sales assistant for these busy stores, I would assist customers with choosing the right product and advising them on after-care. My duties included stock replenishment and carrying out stock takes and audits, when required.

Hobbies and Interests

In my spare time I enjoy drawing, experimenting with special effects make-up and photography. I have further interests in marine and wildlife as well as fashion, musical theatre and travelling.
