Personal Bio

I am an inquisitive, hardworking individual with a strong work history of organisation and time management across hospitality and TV. I am passionate about storytelling and having made my introduction into the film and television industry as a Runner. Currently, I am looking to continue my progression into the AD Department, building on what I have learnt as a Runner and specialise my experience as a 3rd AD.

Employment History

Ebbie's Kitchen, Locations Catering Supervisor

17 October 2021 – Present

HETV, Feature Film and Commercial crew catering: Hotboxing, transporting and serving crew meals from unit base to set.

-Supporting the catering needs of the Head Chef, preparing meals, packing, and traveling equipment across locations.

-Event catering for weddings, wakes and corporate events.

Evolutions Veterinary Practice, Mobility Scorer

Sept 2021 – Feb 2022

-As an accredited member of the Register of Mobility Scorers, I travelled to Mobility Score herds of milk producing cows. This role involved visually checking each animal, recording their identity number and compiling a list for the veterinary practice.

-Additionally, I would then translate this data into a report to be sent to each farm in accordance with the dairy contracts for welfare assurance of their livestock and sale of milk to the public.

Eight Stony Street, FoH Supervisor

2019-2021

Wine shop, bar, and restaurant: service team management, task delegation and communicating customer needs to the kitchen team.

-Delivery and logistics management during lockdown restrictions. System management with Avenista, including floating the tills and creating bank packs. Covid Officer.

Education

BA Hons. English Literature, 2:1, Queen Mary, UoL 2018

Dissertation title: Sirens of the Stage and the Screen: Constructing and Consuming the Gendered Body. My academic interests include visual politics, contextual storytelling, and cultural reception.
