Professional Summary

I am a dedicated paramedic who strives for exceptional patient care and outcomes. For the past five years I have been the director of my own medical company. We have worked hard to organically grow the company and to deliver first class patient care across the film and television industry.

I demonstrate exceptional patient care, quick decision-making skills, and am fully adaptable to various working environments. I am committed to providing high-quality healthcare and ensuring patient safety and comfort during critical situations. Due to my current position as a Paramedic Director, I have been responsible for but not limited to the creation, publication and management of all policies and procedures, clinical governance, GDPR requirements, training and contract management.
