SUMMARY

I'm a recent MA graduate hoping to progress into a Production Runner role and follow a production/editorial route. I am organised, energetic and enthusiastic, working well in roles involving creativity. I have experience of handling multiple tasks at once and prioritising my time, and I wish to use these skills in a production environment.

WORK EXPERIENCE

04/26 – 04/26 | Runner and Supporting Artist | 'Time Out' Film Production, West Midlands

- Assisting with general runner duties on location, such as set dressing, talent management and catering, working closely with the 3rd AD and Production Designer in particular.
- Performing in a supporting artist role for a wedding celebration scene and assisting the casting director for the supply of actors.

07/25 – 08/25 | Account Management and Strategic Planning Intern | Red Bee Creative, London

- Contributing towards a range of creative briefs for leading media companies, including international television networks and publishers, along with internal promotional work.
- Reporting to departmental leaders and Directors in a range of team meetings to advance in-house brand strategy, stakeholder engagement and persuasive client pitch strategy.
