EMMA PLUMMER

TRAINEE MAKEUP ARTIST
BASED KENT & LONDON

MORE ABOUT ME:

I am a newly qualified makeup artist, working and seeking opportunities to grow and learn within the Kent and London area. After 15 years working as a sound and lighting engineer in the live entertainment & events industry, i have decided to switch careers & pursue a more hands on creative future in the world of make-up.

In my 15 years in sound & lighting i have been very fortunate to be involved in music videos and theatre productions. Im now looking to combine my team working, logistics and communication skills & experience from my previous career with my newly learned make-up skills to pursue a new beginning in the make-up world. Im very much a people person and enjoy working as part f a team, lending my strengths, skills & experience to achieve collective goals. I have a considerable amount of experience in people management & customer service from previous retail positions i have held in the past, these roles really helped me build and refine my people skills especially when faced with serving the general public & the many positive & difficult situations that go hand in hand with helping people at there best & worst.

I hold a full uk driving licence as well as the ability to drive larger vehicles along side a current DBS check and a full SIA licence.

AREA'S IM SEEKING OPPORTUNITY IN:

- Theatrical Productions
- Television and Film
- Photography Shoots and Glamour Shots
- Editorial and Runway
- Prosthetics
- Music Videos
