

SARAH BOND

WRITER AND DIRECTOR

THEATRE

Haddaway and Write- Director

Hooley Theatre, May 2026

- Director of three short new writing pieces for the 'Haddaway and Write' tour across 7 local venues
- 'Then I Let it Go Again' by John Dawson
- 'Girls with Glass Slippers' by Lizzie Lovejoy
- 'Parked Off' by Tom Smith

Letters- Writer and Director

Alnwick Playhouse - October 2025

- Original piece written for the Alnwick Playhouse Youth Company as part of the Our Freedom: Then and Now project to celebrate VE/VJ day
- 6 weeks of workshops with the young company to direct and develop the original piece.

Orpheus and Eurydice Project- Director

The Lit and Phil, Newcastle - September 2025

- Creator of a free 6 week mythology and performance programme for young people aged 12-18 at the Lit and Phil library July-September 2025
- Collaboration with Lit and Phil and ClassicsFest team to create accessible education piece on ancient mythology

Seagulls and Sad Sad Stories- Writer and Director

Laurels, Whitley Bay - December 2024

- Winner of the Richard Jenkinson Commission 2023.
- Nominated for Best Writer at The Stage Debut Awards 2025
- Original piece created for a 3 week run Dec 9th to the 23rd
- Cast of 4 adults, a range of young performers aged 11-14, and live punk band
- Published by Bloomsbury Publishing (Methuen Drama) Dec 2024

You Need to Say Sorry- Director

Laurels, Whitley Bay - November 2023

- Hard hitting piece about domestic abuse, working with Northumbria Police
- Now used as domestic abuse training across the North East
- Small regional tour following original run at Laurels

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Born in Gateshead, raised in County Durham, my goal as a creative is to elevate the working class voices of the North. As an emerging writer and director, I often work closely with young people and community groups to develop impactful stories based on lived experience.

CONTACT INFORMATION

07930 802 364

7 Bolam Buildings, Flint Hill,
County Durham,
DH9 9JF

sarahlouisebond@outlook.com

www.sarahlouisebond.co.uk

@sarahlouisebond

FILM

Producer and Director

My Life Productions, 2022- 2023

- Applying for funding, securing support from the Heritage Lottery Fund
- Leading performance workshops with young people aged 13- 21
- Managing team of creatives to deliver programme for young people
- Creating and organising two large scale documentary projects and two short films.
- Writer and director of short film 'Alnwick Fair'
- Director of short film and documentary 'Northern Stage at 50'

Tether

Director- March 2024

- Short film written and performed by young victims of abuse aged 14-18
- Commission and supported by the violence reduction unit at Northumbria Police to raise awareness of domestic abuse

The Men

Assistant Director- June 2024

- Short film written by and starring actor Con O'Neill
- Difficult themes of abuse in LGBTQ+ community

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Project Producer

Northern School of Art, June 2026

- Project producer on upcoming 'Rock Pools' project supported by Arts Council England.

Cultural Engagement Support Officer

Durham County Council, February 2025 to April 2026

- Assisting in the planning and implementation of cultural festivals and events in County Durham including Brass Festival, Lumiere, and Book Festival
- Creating events to preserve County Durham heritage eg. Durham Miner's Gala
- Outreach to local community including schools, music organisations and artists.

Advertising Creative

Bauer Media, December 2018 to February 2025

- Developing strategy and creating multimedia copy for web, TV, social, radio, animation, and outdoor.
- Project management on high potential advertising campaigns.
- Directing radio sessions and video shoots.
- Pitch creative ideas to clients in face to face meetings with businesses.
- Screenplays for social media video and animation production.
- Music and lyric development.

ADDITIONAL SKILLS, QUALIFICATIONS AND INFORMATION

- Full clean UK driving license and access to vehicle
- Public Speaking and Acting- LAMDA Grades 6, 7, and 8 (Distinction)
- Valid DBS and volunteer Chaperone License
- Musician (vocals, bass and guitar)
- Confident with Microsoft Excel, Word, Powerpoint, Google services, Monday.com and other admin softwares.
- Volunteer Independant Visitor with Durham Council Fostering Service and Youth Justice
- Level 2 qualification in Understanding Children and Young People's Mental Health
- Voiceover Performer with credits on local and naitonal radio campaigns