PROFILE

Aspiring production designer and current Film student at Bournemouth University, with a strong passion for media, production, and the creative industries. I am highly motivated, reliable, and eager to gain hands-on experience in all areas of film and media, including behind-the-scenes production, creative development, and on-set work. Open to volunteering opportunities, I am committed to expanding my skills and learning from industry professionals.

EXPERIENCE

Production designer / Location coordinator

“Michael and me” short film – Bournemouth University

February 2026 – May 2026

Social Media creator

Volunteer – Bournemouth Oceanarium

February 2026

I produced engaging social media content for a refurbished oceanarium to promote visitor experiences and marine life exhibits. I was responsible for capturing high-quality photos and videos for Instagram Stories and social media posts, highlighting key attractions and improving the ‘aesthetic’ of their socials.

Design Assistant – Cordia Uk Property Limited

February 2023

I assisted the Director of Design and Strategy in design tasks relating to a live property development scheme and carried out residential rental market research. My particular focus was on designing an amenity space within a rental property to focus on the development of my creative and digital skills. This also gain me invaluable experience in a different environment, in an office environment.
