

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF SALFORD 2023-
PRESENT BA (HONS) MEDIA AND PERFORMANCE

ST. CRISPIN'S SCHOOL 2015-
2022 A-LEVELS IN DRAMA,
HISTORY, TEXTILES

SKILLS

- Effective time management
- Organisation
- Communication (by email and face to face)
- Safety conscious/ writing risk assessments
- Hand and machine sewing (inc. making clothes)
- Other textiles such as knitting, crochet and needle felting
- Acting and presenting
- Knowledge in production scheduling
- Some experience in writing scripts
- Basic knowledge of editing with PremierePro and Audition

Natasha Marston

Trainee

07403577714

tashg.marston@gmail.com

Based in Reading/Manchester

I am a new entrant, with a desire to learn more about the industry and develop professionally within it. I am well suited to any roles that favour organisation and I have experience completing production paperwork to a high standard on student films. I am also a practiced sewer and actor who thrives in creative and practical environments.

WORK

Retail Assistant - Next, the Lexicon, Bracknell - Aug 2022 to Jul 2023

- Working at the till, being approachable and a friendly face
- dealing with customer queries efficiently
- keeping the shop floor tidy and packaging clothes
- dressing mannequins

VOLUNTEERING

Secretary - Salford Christian Union - 2024 to 2025

- kept clear and concise minutes at our weekly committee meetings
- emailed and booked speakers for each week
- organised and ran stalls to advertise the society
- created 1000 friendship bracelet kits to hand out as freebies.

Leader in training - 3rd Wokingham Guides - Sep 2022 to Jul 2023

- Communicated to parents through email and in person
- organising events and trips
- creating risk assessments
- completed basic training in GDPR and safeguarding
- thinking on my feet to keep the girls engaged.

Production assistant - Break Up with Your Boyfriend (at the Edinburgh Fringe) – Scylla's Bite - Aug 2023

- helped set up props
- advertised the show by handing out flyers every morning