Personal Statement

I'm an enthusiastic, creative and dedicated BSc Film and Television Production student, currently in my third year of studying at the University of York. Passionate about all things Film and TV, I'm committed to developing the experience needed to be able to have a career in the industry. Actively seeking voluntary opportunities to progress in my knowledge and skills set through 'real life' industry experience. A team player who values a collaborative approach, I am willing to learn, take direction and work hard. I hope that I could be a positive addition to your film crew.
