MORE INFORMATION ABOUT ME

Alongside producing, writing and directing, I have been running my own business, called The Young Actors Group - a part time acting school and agency for ages 5 – 19 – for seven years.

Away from the office I spend my time training, reading fantasy books, being outdoors, playing football and coaching the U9s local team, supporting my daughter's gymnastics career, gaming, trying to be a husband to an amazing wife and father to three crazy children!

Individual references and examples of my work are available on request.
