

Thomas Holden
07912371456
tom_holden@hotmail.com
tomSFX.com

Full Clean UK Drivers License with car
Based in London

I am an experienced television assistant art director and Standby Props having worked on BBC productions such as Doctors, Land Girls and The Coroner, as well as many student productions. I have a degree in Special Effects and I am able to drive a mini bus or van, as well as having my own car.

Professional Credits

January – February 2016 Standby Props Evolutionary Films
Working on the Horror film Aux providing props and Artem smoke effects.

December 2015 Assistant Art Director and Rain effects UNICEF
Building a rain machine, set decorating and buying for a international UNICEF commercial

November 2015 Art Assistant and Standby 16Campaign Film
Working on a Commercial set building and standby props for the shoot

September – October 2015: Standby Props Sixty Six Pictures
Working on the period Film Lady Macbeth providing onset props and fire effects

April 2015 – July: Standby Props BBC1 Drama 'The Coroner'
Working on brand new BBC drama The Coroner as Standby Props on set for the duration of the production.

July 2013 – April 2015: Head Runner Clear Cut Pictures
Working at one of the best post houses in London leading a team of runners.

October 2012-February 2013: Assistant Art Director BBC1 Birmingham
Working on the BBC drama Doctors as an assistant art director and on set art director.

March 2011- current: Prop Maker Freelance
Using the skills I learnt at university to make sponge props for TV shows such as, Land Girls, Doctors and Father Brown.

June 2011- July 2011: SFX Assistant

BBC

Working With Graham Brown on the set of Land Girls to provide fire, smoke and bullet effects along with explosions on the air raid bombing scenes.

August 2011-December 2011: Floor Runner

BBC Birmingham

Working as a floor runner on the BBC drama Doctors.

June 26th–June28th 2012: Art Director

Blood Boil Productions

Working on the short film 'Loo' as an art director with Blood Boil Productions for The Virgin Film festival.

4. Education

The University of Hertfordshire (Sept 2008 – July 2011)

Ba(Hons) Special Effects

2:1

A confident, creative and enthusiastic individual who strives in many aspects.

Always willing to help others and enjoys teamwork, also works well as an individual by using initiative. Making friends and respecting others is a valuable asset when joining a team and I feel I would bring a lot to the work place.

References Available on Request