Focused, conscientious, with a keen eye and an art in the craft of lighting: As comfortable on any film set as I am the photographic studio.

After assisting some of the most respected photographers in London, including Terry O'Neil & Corrine Day I applied my skills to the world of TV when I became ITV's staff photographer.

For 2 ½ years I was responsible for all content including unit stills, cover shoots and conceptually led specials with which to promote the UK's most popular dramas in the national press.

Now independent, 2011 saw my first billboard shoot for UKTV's 'Made by Dave' campaign. 2012 saw my first fully credited film Bula Quo! a feature filmed on location in Fiji with rock gods Status Quo and early 2013 I took over the reigns as the exclusive Dancing on Ice photographer.
