Ladieswear Costumier
Working closely with costume designers I created and fitted period costumes for principals and background. This work also involved coordinating teams to make and alter costumes to the relevant budget.

Just some examples of the productions:

The illusionist (film) – Costume designer, Ngila Dickson

The white countess (Merchant Ivory) – Costume designer, John Bright

20,000 streets under the sky (BBC) – Costume designer, Charlotte Holditch

Miss Marple (Granada TV) Costume designer, Phoebe De-gaye

Wah-Wah (Richard E Grant Film) – Costume designer, Sheena Napier

The genius of Mozart (BBC2) – Costume designer, June Nevin

Cyrano De- Bergerac (National Theatre) – Costume designer, John Bright

La Boheme (Raymond Gubby, Royal Albert Hall) – Costume, Sue Wilmington

Poirot (Granada TV) – Costume designer, Sheena Napier

FASHION

April 2000-
Feb 2001 Radio Active Clothing PTY LTD, Ingles street, Melbourne, Australia
Fashion Designer
I designed and co-ordinated full ranges to sell to the Coles Myer Group for mass market across the whole of Australia. Specializing in girlsweat 3-16 and ladies wear. During my time there, I expanded our account with the Fiorucci brand, franchised to Myer department stores, becoming their largest supplier.

March 2000 Radio Active Clothing PTY LTD, Ingles street, Melbourne, Australia
Quality Assurance Controller
Visiting the factories, controlling flow of production into the warehouse to the correct standards of the Coles Myer Group. Being the only employee in this position, I dealt with impromptu problem solving and important decision making, in order to achieve delivery dates.

Sept 1997-
Jan 2000 Arcadia Group PLC, Dorothy Perkins, 70 Berners Street, London
Assistant Buyer
Assistant buyer for the dress department. I was in charge of buying the casual dress range, expanding this area inline with current trends and co-coordinating fashion shows to interpret key looks to our shop managers.
