

Allan Haynes

Phone 01953 851003 07917 546586
Email dogwood@supanet.com

Dogwood House
Hall Moor Road
Hingham
Norfolk
NR9 4LB

*Film & PSC Recordist / Sound Assistant / Boom Op.
Studio & OB Sound Supervisor / Assistant*

BECTU member

Curriculum Vitae

- 1954 - 1961 Grammar School education. 7 GCE 'O' levels, 2 'A' levels (Physics & Maths.)
1961 - 1965 BBC Radio, World Service. Trained as Technical Operator (Control Room, tape recording and editing.)
1965 - 1976 BBC Film Dept., Ealing Studios. Trained as Sound Assistant / Boom Op., then Recordist. Worked on every type of programme including drama, sitcom, music, documentaries, current affairs, and sport.
Training attachments included Equipment Office and Crew Allocations.
1976 - 1980 Freelance as Recordist. Also gained experience on commercials, corporate films, hard news, and theatre work.
1980 - 1994 Joined Anglia TV and retrained as studio and OB Sound Technician, and becoming proficient on Mole and Fisher studio booms, again working on all types of programme output. Also relieving on film, ENG news and PSC, then full time on film and PSC units from 1989. Redundant in 1994 as result of company take-over.
1994 to date Freelance as Recordist and Sound Assistant, also now experienced on feature films, international conference set-ups, and as studio Sound Supervisor.

Concurrent "second" career in road transport industry, HGV and PSV driving licences held, professionally qualified as Transport Manager.

PSC sound kit available, Stereo trained and experienced.

Audio editing available (non-linear Cool Edit Pro / Adobe Audition or 1/4" with razor blades), and copying between any formats.

Able to write for TV, direct film and PSC, and work as assistant/associate producer, also as unit manager. Can operate cameras to a basic standard. Have made several short films of my own, edited on Avid and Media 100.

Fluent French spoken, passable German, can get by in several other European languages.

Can read music, experience of orchestral playing, and recording orchestral and other music.

Widely travelled in the UK and overseas, can go anywhere at short notice.

Credits : Most of the output of BBC Ealing, Lime Grove and TV Centre film units up to 1976, including Dad's Army (as Boom Op.), Poldark (1975 series), Blue Peter, Panorama, Tomorrow's World, etc., etc., etc.

At Anglia TV : Highway, P.D. James detective thrillers, LE and Quiz shows, current affairs, and hard news. OB experience on horse racing, football & rugby, boxing & wrestling, snooker, squash, motor racing, cycling, church services, music and events. Also BBC Hospital Watch, live injects for ITN, BBC national news, Look East, and BBC Commonwealth Games coverage, Manchester 2002.

Sound Supervisor for Anglia TV News, BBC Newsroom Southeast, Nickelodeon children's channel, and satellite shopping and entertainment channels.

Personal interests : Transport and transport history, farming and country matters, gardening, model making, photography, classical music.

Main base in East Anglia but can be based anywhere else as required.

