PERSONAL STATEMENT

I feel that my friendly, approachable and conscientious manner and excellent communication skills make me a highly employable person. I am enthusiastic about working, quick to adapt and work very well with others, totally committing to the task at hand; this makes me a valuable part of any team. Confidence and reliability are also key qualities I would bring to any workplace. I am a very creative person, often developing innovative ideas and, in particular, studying film production has developed my ability to work to a strict schedule and also work well under pressure. I am also very technically competent, with a keen eye for detail.

EMPLOYMENT

Revolution Bristol – Bar Staff (August 2012 – Present)

- As a member of the bar staff at Revolution my duties include serving customers, handling cash and operating tills, cleaning and tidying duties and providing excellent customer service at all times.

Motion Marketing – Field Representative (April 2012)

- As a field representative at Motion Marketing, I was punctual, extremely hard working and most of all dedicated to working as a crew to meet weekly targets. This role involved fast paced and direct customer interaction and my communication skills really progressed as a result.

Angard Staffing – Manual Data Entry Keyer for Royal Mail (Dec 2011)

- This position called for focus, punctuality, a high productivity rate and a good level of computer skills, all of which are attributes that I maintained throughout this temporary contract - consistently meeting targets set by the workgroup manager.

INTERESTS

I have a passion for filmmaking and photography - both as a hobby and also a career aspiration. I am part of the YouthNet Volunteer Network as a photographer; this offers me the fantastic opportunity to meet other people who share my passion. Other interests include graphic design, reading, cooking, winter and water sports, and travelling.
