As the director of Waiting for Anya, I had the pleasure of working closely with Blandine for 3 months in the French Pyrenees. I honestly can't recommend her highly enough - Blandine's work ethic is fantastic and on numerous occasions she stepped up to take on additional responsibilities that ultimately helped us deliver the finished film. The job required the cast and crew to work in difficult situations and Blandine was instrumental as a motivator and leader. She will unquestionably be a valued asset to anyone taking her on. Please feel free to call me on +447966134573 should there be anything specific you would like to discuss.
