In 2014 I directed my graduation film 'Little', which was shot on the Arri Alexa and premiered at the BFI. The film will be in competition in the Light in Motion (LIM) Awards at the Foyle Film Festival 2014; the only Oscar affiliated film festival in Northern Ireland. The script was written by Joel Horwood (Skins, Royal Court) and starred Rebecca Humphries (Big Bad World, Come Fly With Me). Throughout my three years at AUB I directed several short films on both 16mm and the Arri Alexa. Additionally I worked as a 1st AD for several short films as well as a commercial entered into the Kodak Student awards. I was 2nd AD for the film Untitled Song, winner of Best Fiction at the Southern Centre RTS Awards in 2014. All these projects have been invaluable in developing my filmmaking, my organisational skills and my ability to work successfully with a group of individuals.

Additionally I have proficient software skills with Microsoft Office, Photoshop and InDesign, as well as owning a Canon 60D and editing on Final Cut Pro.
