JACK MIDGLEY

As a self-employed fully qualified electrician, I have been working daily's in television and film production. My aim is to become crew and gain knowledge and experience in an ever-changing industry. I am hard working, diligent and believe you must do whatever is needed to get the job completed on time. I have worked in studios and on location. My experience is mainly in drama which has given me good practical knowledge along with a strong work ethic.

History

I have been a self employed electrician for seven years. This has involved many challenging briefs. I have worked on projects ranging from large commercial jobs building car showrooms, working on farms, shops, pubs, schools and years of domestic work. I thrive in being part of a team but also I am extremely motivated and competent on my own.
